

THE LAND THAT WAS

For millennia, this has been a beautiful, abundant land rich with . . .

ACROSS

DOWN

- |   |   |
|---|---|
| 1. bogs full of dark red _____ 5. orange, gold and scarlet _____ in theAutumn 9. many flocks of these large, intelligent game birds 11. stands of the useful and beautiful paper _____ 12. many _____, especially in themore rugged terrain 14. large and elusive members of the cat family 16. this ungainly animal that's largest of the deer family 17. _____ planted to grow corn, beans, squash 19. _____ found in great abundance in certain watersand well known for its delicious taste 20. deer depend on this type of tree to get through Winter | 1. herds of this magnificent member of the deer family 2. large numbers of big, lumbering black _____ 3. numerous lakes and _____ 4. individuals of this ancient fish growing over seven andeven 10 feet in length 6. flocks of _____ pigeons so large theydarkened the sky for hours when migrating 7. this fleet, lovely animal which was also a food staple 8. stretches of majestic, towering _____ 10. _____ whose howls filled the nights 13. cinnamon, bracken, ostrich and many more _____ 15. wild _____, a food staple growing in shallow lakes 18. ____ from which wonderful sugar and syrup was made |
|---|---|